Product Description

Simulated Plastic Flowers Are Used For Wedding Living Room Decoration

Product type:

This product is a simulated plastic flower, specially designed for wedding and living room decoration. Using plastic as the main material, it simulates the appearance of natural flowers and is designed to provide beautiful decoration for a long time.

Design style:

It is made of simulated plastic material, and the design style is biased toward European style. It is mainly composed of simulated roses and focuses on curling design, showing a fresh and elegant beauty of life. The design is inspired by nature and pursues natural and elegant shapes.

Process technology:

Through highly simulated original patterns, each petal is precisely dyed to achieve a transitional and natural effect. The materials are rich, and the leaves and flowers are combined accordingly to increase realism and ornamental value.

Features and advantages:

Stay beautiful for a long time: Plastic flowers are durable and can maintain their bright appearance for a long time.

Fresh and elegant design: The European-style curled rose design shows freshness and elegance, injecting an elegant atmosphere into the environment.

High degree of simulation: The highly simulated production process makes the flowers look lifelike.

Applicable to multiple scenes: It can be used for wedding decoration, living room decoration, and adapts to various indoor occasions.
