Product Description

Product description

This product is a simulated small Paris rose bouquet. It is imitated from natural resin and synthetic fiber raw materials, but it is non-toxic and harmless. It is made of safe and environmentally friendly materials. The appearance is detailed and lifelike, showing the cascading flying posture of rose buds when they open. The number of petals is moderate but not too cumbersome.

Features and Advantages

Excellent toughness, longer life than real flowers, can stay fresh for a long time without withering. The craftsmanship is meticulous, and the detail processing is exquisite and lifelike like real flowers.

1. Good durability: no need for water nurture and will not wither over time.
2. Highly ornamental: the colors and shapes are delicate and realistic, giving people great visual enjoyment even if they are not real flowers.
