Product Description

Material and handmade:

artificial dandelion flower is made of high quality plastic and wire, ensuring the durability and quality of the product. Each artificial dandelion flower is carefully handcrafted, ensuring the uniqueness and finesse of each flower. The sturdy manufacturing process makes it difficult to break, increasing the service life of the product.

No maintenance required:

Artificial dandelion flowers do not require watering or sunlight and require no special care. They retain their long-lasting appearance and vibrant color without requiring additional maintenance.

Simple design:

Silk dandelion flowers are medium in size, lightweight and portable, with a simple design that highlights their natural and elegant features. With its slender wires and delicate plastic petals that recreate the details of a real dandelion flower, the artificial dandelion plant is suitable for a variety of interior decorating styles, adding a natural, minimalist beauty to a space.
