Product Description

Multiple colors available: Calla Lily artificial flowers provide a wide range of color options, including classic white, elegant pink, deep purple, etc., to meet the needs of different occasions and personal preferences.

High-quality PU material: white silk calla lilies are made of high-quality PU (polyurethane) material, ensuring that the flowers feel comfortable to the touch and have a realistic appearance. PU has good durability and shape retention capabilities, making the artificial flowers stronger and more durable.

Applicable commercial scenarios: white and yellow calla lily bouquet is suitable for a variety of commercial scenarios, such as hotels, wedding venues, restaurants, offices, etc. They can be used as exquisite decorations to enhance the environment and create an atmosphere of elegance and style. At the same time, they are also ideal commercial furnishings that can enhance the overall image of the commercial space.
